VARSITY LOSES TO VERMONT

"BOYS FROM VERMONT" DEFEAT BUFF AND BLUE IN CLOSE GAME

Captain Barrows and Brock Star for New Englanders While Lawler Plays Well for Hamilton.

Hamilton lost her first home game of the season today to the strong University of Vermont team. Steuben Field was a slimy puddle of ooze and the ball became so slippery that both teams fumbled frequently. The game was hard fought throughout and the two teams were pretty evenly matdhed. The "Boys from Vermont" were on their toes all the time and were out to retrieve their early season's defeats while the Big Blue team, still smarting under the defeat at the hands of Williams last wek and crippled by the loss of Kaiser in the backfield and Gorman in the line, fought like demons. The game was exceedingly exciting and close but the poor weather conditions prevented an ideal game.

An overcast sky and a probability of showers threatened to keep the attendanre down at the game, whilh was the only intercollegeiate football match in this section of the country this afternoon. The inclement weather made the crowd slow in getting on the field, the warmth of indoors being preferred to the dampness outside.

The field, although having been rolled in the morning, was soft and slippery, making the possibilities for open play in the game rather poor. The heavier team will no doubt have the advantage. The numerous house party girls scattered through the crowd added a touch of color. The attendance was estimated at 500.

Among the alumni present were the following: Dunham, '79, Sicard, '06, Soper, '06, Sherman, '06, Carmer, '14, Ogden, '14, Powers, '18, Kingston, '18, Jessup, '19, Spinning, '19, Huntsman, '19, Briggs, '19, Flesh, ex-'18, Marken, ex-'20, Hewett, ex-'21, Hol, land, ex-'20.

The Hamilton team took the field at 2:46 and were greeted by a long yell which echoed throughout the field. The varsity and second team ran through a brisk signal practice. The team lacked the support of Capt. Gorman, star tackle and Fullback Kaiser. Capt. Gorman was kept out of the game on account of the sudden death of a member of his family. This is the first game with the exception of a few minutes in the N. Y. U. game this year that he has missed since he has been in college. Injuries reseived at Williams kept Kaiser out of the game.

"BAN" LAWLER

The Game Play by Play

Vermont appeared at 2:50, led by Capt. Barrows, and were greeted by a long yell. They appeared to be fast but somewhat lighter than the Buff and Blue team. They ran through signal practice in a brisk fashion. Their bright green jerseys stood out in sharp contrast with the blue of Hamilton.

In the few minutes before play after the teams had taken the field, the Hamilton bleahhers resounded with songs and yells for the various members of the team.

Hamilton won the toss and Moreland kicked off to Johnson, who ran back the ball to Vermont's 32-yard line. Johnson (H) gained 1½ yards through left tackle. Pape hit the right side for a yard's gain. Lawler ran around right end but gained nothing. Hamilton was penalized 5 yards for the backfield being in motion

SPRINGFIELD TO BE HARD CONTEST

Y. M. C. A. College Although Trimmed in Early Season Contests Has Strong Team

HAVE STAR BACKFIELD

A week from today the Buff and Blue will travel to Springfield to play the Y. M. C. A. College. The team has a tough proposition to face in Coach Berry's aggregation, which has been putting up a stiff fight in every game this season. Although it has been worsted on several occasions, it cannot be said that the Red and White are not in the game every minute.

Lose to Yale

Springfield lost to Yale by a score of 20 to 0, but was at a great disadvantage throughout the game. The next week she defeated Tufts in a close game, which finally ended with the score of 7 to 6. Dartmouth and Holy Cross proved more than a match for Springfield, and she lost to the first by a rather large score and to the latter by one touchdown. Springfield proved what she could do, however, last week when she overwhelmed the doughboys at Fort McKinley to the tune of 58 to 0. Today the Red and White is playing Harvard.

Have Star Line

Coach Berry has been able to develope a remarkable team on defensive through the presence of such men as Weber and Quinlan on the line. The former plays right tackle, and the latter plays center, from which position he directs the team as captain. In the backfield, Drew, as left halfback, has shown up very well in the games of the first part of the season. Brett, the intercollegiate wrestling champion in his freshman year, is playing fullback and has done a large share of Springfield's offensive work.

It is difficult to make any comparison between Hamilton and Springfield as they have played no teams in common. It will be seen, however, that Springfield is carrying a much heavier schedule than is the Buff and Blue, but this again proves nothing. It only remains to be seen what the two teams will do when they meet on November 8.

Our Welcome

The week-end has brought many visitors to the Hill and the crowd at the game today was indeed gratifying to every Hamilton man's heart.

These guests are indeed welcome and Life wishes to join in the celebration by offering this joint Football-House Party issue fo rthe approval of guests, undergraduates and alumni.

GLEE CLUB

On Wednesday night last, "try-outs" for the Glee Club were held in Silliman Hall. Under the supervision of Leader Peters, fully a hundred men had the opportunity to show what they could do in the line of singing. Mr. Peters was well pleased with the way the men turned out in the interest of the Club. He is confident that on account of the wealth of material which presented itself, a "better than ever" organization will be the result.

The following men were given places on the Club: 1st tenor—Peters, '20, Ritterbush, '20, Paton, '21, Fisk, '21, Pritchett, '21, McClay, '22, Daniels, '23, Ferris, '23, North, '23; 2nd tenor—Martin, '20, Kaiser, '20, Calkins, '20, Keeler, '20, Moffat, '21, Daniels, '21, Harper, '21, Davison, '21, Fitch, '23, Rounds, '23; 1st bass—Eddy, '20, Parker, '21, Forshay, '21, Pendleton, '21, Holler, '21, Larned, '21, Pope, '22, Macey, '22, Saxe, '23, Warren, '23; 2nd bass—A. R. Thompson, '20, Thorp, '20, Johnson, '20, Cairns, '20, Whitbeck, '21, Maier, '21, Burns, '22, McGiffen, '23, Brandow, '23.

Spice o' Life

Weakly Pome

Once more we see the girlies fair
A' swarming o'er the campus;
Therefore "Slimer," best beware,
For oft' they come to vamp us.
Once more we sense that awful smell,
(That moth-ball scent's a "hummer);
Those dress-suits surely look like—well
They've been hung up all summer.
Once more the house is clean and neat,
We gaze with pride;
Just see the fellows wipe their feet,
Before they come inside.
Once more we hear the good old jazz
Of orchestras galore;
And on we dance, though each one has
A foot that's getting sore.
We welcome all our fairer friends,
Who set our hearts a'beating,
So please receive what Life extends
To you—a cordial greeting.

Bennet: "Are you going to spring house party this year?"
Howland: "Yes, I'm going stag."
Bennet: "How is that, Terry?"
Terry: "I haven't any doe."

Supe: "The ending 'let' means small; for example, brooklet, a little brook; streamlet, a little stream—"
Stackhouse: "Bullet, a little bull."

Shimmy Sam says that there are a bunch of fellows a long ways from the water.

Supe (in Spanish): "What's the word for cow, Hyde?"

Coupe: "I know where you got that tie."
Moffat: "Where?"
Coupe: "Around your neck."
Later, Chadeayne trys to pull the same one: "Where did you get the tie?" (Arthur thermometer.)

Harper (to Ballot, who has been attacked by a strange silence): "What's the trouble, Abe?"
Abie: "I'm on silence. I've just been tapped for Phi Beta Kappa."

We wonder why some men persist in hiding their natural beauty behind a growth of unrecognizable fuzz.

HOUSEPARTY HINTS

1. If you have learned how to spear a slice of bread across the table, be sure to do this trick. Girls just love a clever man.
2. Whenever one of the brothers pulls an old joke, groan and hoot. Never let anyone get away with anything.
3. When Prex and his wife come in, run over in the corner, wring your hands, and run around saying, "He's here, He's here." Kid stuff is always good.
4. When riding up the Hill in a car always make faces at the boys who are walking. They couldn't get cars, but make them feel cheap anyway.
5. Throw your cigarette butts on the floor. Act natural, above all.
6. Always present the fellow to the girl. Never mind about conventions.
7. If one of the brothers can't dance, every time you swish by him laugh aloud. Have a good time, no matter about the rest of the lay-off.
8. Be sure to show your girl all the campus buildings, and say, "Here's where I recite." A room full of empty desks always is thrilling.

Woman, Woman, thou art a wonderful creature. You have transformed this group of unshaven men with uncombed locks, garbed in army breeches, trousers which have long since felt the gentle imprint of an iron, flannel shirts, week-old collars, and shoes which the U. S. presented to his S. A. T. C. heroes, to one grand chapter of Chi Psi, neat, prim, polite, painfully courteous, and abnormally sleek of appearance.

House parties work havoc with nearly everyone, but the Dekes and D. U.'s suffer most. The brothers have to get their clothes pressed, hair combed, and wear clean collars.

News Item—The Alpha Delts entertained last night in the lean-to on the back of Sam Eells Memorial Hall.

Shorty Evans was here last week. Look out for another invasion of fruit vests.

Dance Girl (seeing Lynn Culver pussyfooting along the hematite walks): "Is that man scored, or is that his natural walk?"

Not an unnatural question, we pause to remark.

Economics Dope

If the D. U.'s want to save money on their chapter taxes, they could put Joe Rodgers and Henry U-Boat Hopkins in the same room, and sell tickets to watch the performance. Zip Griffith could give his dance to break the monotony, although we hardly put Zip in the above category.

Yours in the Bonds

Sid Rosenthal signed Abe Ballot's memory book as follows: "Judging from the way you look, we might be cousins."

It is too bad that it is not winter, so the D. U.'s could throw snow balls in the girls' windows to announce the coming of dawn. However, Rocks' lab would furnish a few gentle reminders.

Tourist (hearing music in the Deke house and taking a good look at the mansion): "What are they having there? A barn dance?"

Our Faculty

One of the greatest sights of the campus is Dr. Leroy Shirley, grey socks, mustache, and all. He was forced to grow the upperlip fuzz so the Freshmen would know enough to salute.

Dance Girl (seeing Gawdy Barnett): "Is that man subject to epileptic fits?"

Since the country went dry, the brothers will not be anxious to sneak out underneath the porch between dances. Bring back those wonderful days.

From the roll call of the various houses it would seem that some of the college widows are taking a post graduate course. We're glad to see them, at that. We old timers must stick together.

—Adariah Woolnough, '17, recently visited the Hill to say goodbye to his friends. He is leaving for California to go into the fruit raising business.

Doctors Prescribe John's Cascara Compound Tablets for Constipation

They have been prescribing them for years. Ask any prescription clerk... John's Cascara Compound Tablets are the ideal agent for overcoming habitual constipation. IDEAL because they contain no irritating cathartics which apply the whip to the intestines, weaken the system and end by aggravating the very condition they were intended to relieve.

The gentle, thorough, laxative effect of Johns' Cascara Compound Tablets is due entirely to Johns' concentrated and refined extract of Cascara Sagrada, the "sacred bark" of the Aztecs, who knew its value in correcting constipation—the source of so much sickness and discomfort.

They relieve flatulence, nausea, vertigo, water brash, constipation and loss of appetite. They remove greasiness and sallowness of the complexion. They are a most efficient remedy for bilious attacks and sick headaches.

A Johns' Cascara Compound Tablet taken at night insures in the morning a natural and complete evacuation of the bowel contents. The continued use of Johns' Cascara Compound Tablets can be nothing but beneficial. Price, 25 cents.

UNDERCLASSMEN IN CELEBRATION

Sophs and Frosh Revive Hallowe'en Party With Great Enthusiasm.

VISIT CLINTON

The Sophomore-Freshmen Hallowe'en Celebration, abolished three years ago, was revived last Thursday night with much enthusiasm. The Underclassmen threw aside class differences for the evening and worked hand in hand to give "Brick" Blake and his squad of huskies a little work to do in the wee small hours of the morning. "Brick" lived up to his reputation and every misplaced desk, seat or building was in its proper place by class time Friday morning.

"Indians" Congregate

The "Indians" collected in front of the Chapel and then, headed by Roger Williams, the Sophomore president, they marched around the Campus to let the college know they were loose. After a short conference the leaders decided to thrust the mob on the unsuspecting and peaceful village of Clinton. A stop was made at Coach's house on the way down for a speech. When the village was reached it was found that "Hank" Clark and his trusty police force were waiting as a committee of welcome on behalf of Clinton. The celebrators refused to be welcomed and the police force was obliged to retire. Without further interruption the bunch proceeded to "Bugs" Morrill's house and got that worthy gentleman out of bed with a string of long yells. In response to the demands for a speech "Bugs" said that he didn't know whether the evil saints or some "private stock" had sent the students down to him. The next stop was the home of Professor Lewis. "Cal" came out and gave an example of how a "dinky dec" should be rendered, told a few "new" jokes and then made his get-away. The return uptown was made via street car, the trip being made on the company. The students then returned to the Hill, where the Slimers served doughnuts and cider in the Gym.

CLASS ELECTIONS

The elections of the officers of the two lower classes have been completed this last week, and the men chosen for the responsible positions reflect the excellent judgment of their classmates. No better proof of the regard in which these men are held can be given than the fact that all were elected by large majorities. The Sophomore officers are as follows: President, Roger H. Williams, Ogdensburg; Vice-president, Raymond Whittaker, Endicott; Secretary-treasurer, George Monaghan, Canadaigua.

The Freshmen officers are: President, Carl Warren of Remsen; Vice-president, Huntsman, and Secretary-treasurer, Johnson.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Delayed Because of Rainy Weather of Past Week.

The rainy weather of the last week has seriously retarded the completion of the fall tennis tournament, but with any sort of good weather in the near future, the final matches will soon be played off. Students are awaiting with impatience the playing of the final matches as there are some strong men still in the field, including Calkins, Cobb, Acebron, and Welsh. Those who have been watching the progress of the tournament predict that the championship will go to one of these men, with Calkins and Welsh as the favorites. The results of a few of the latest matches are given below:

Second Round

Welsh-Burke, 6-0,6-0.
Farrand-Martin, 8-6, 6-4.
Calkins-Price, 6-4, 6-3.
Cairns-Throop, default.
Coupe-Finegan, 6-1, 5-7, 6-1.
Kneeland-Hinke, 6-2, 6-3.
Cobb-Morrow, 6-2, 6-3.
Welsh-Keane, default.

Third Round

Cobb-Cairns, default.

Fourth Round

Welsh-Coupe, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2.

COMMITTEE ON WALK

Appointed by Dr. Wood, President of Undergraduate Council.

At the college dinner a few weeks ago, the matter of repairing the walk down the Hill was brought up for discussion. A committee of three was appointed to investigate the matter and to see that an improvement of some sort be made.

This committee has made arrangments to have the board walk entirely rebuilt, except for one stretch that has been laid only a short time. The cost will be about $250, and the undergraduates' share of this will be met by a tax of fifty cents per man. The rest will be taken care of by a sum of $38 already on hand, and by subscriptions from some of the members of the faculty.

The members of the committee, Elliott, Sinclair, and Maier, deserve hearty praise for their speedy work. Construction will probably be begun this week.

ANNUAL CATALOGUE TO BE READY JAN. 1

To be Published as Part of December Issue of Bulletin—November Issue to Contain War Record.

CATALOGUE HAS USUAL DATA

The 1919-1920 annual catalogue will be ready for the students when they come back from their Christmas vacation next January. The catalogue will be published in the December issue of the Bulletin, but as the November number, containing the war records of Hamilton men, is to appear at the end of this month, it has been deemed wise to postpone the December issue until January. Ordinarily the December Bulletin would appear at the end of next month. However, since that would be during the Christmas recess there is no reason for so prompt an appearance.

Catalogue Contents

The contents of the catalogue will be as usual. The same necessary data and announcements will be changed only in so far as dates and names have changed. Beginning with the calendar for the period September, 1919, to Christmas, 1920, the other matters will follow in line, thus: A list of the Trustees and Faculty, with all committees made up of each; a short history of the College and its aims; methods of and requirements for admission; curriculum and graduation; courses offered and departments of instruction; honors and degrees; general information; degrees honors, and prizes of last year; associations of alumni; students attending College, and an index.

—Robert J. Kelsey, '98, is eastern manager of the Republic Motor Truck Company. He may be addressed 135 W. 16th Street, New York City.

—Ingersoll, '15, after serving in the Intelligence Corps in France, has returned and is now in business in New York.

—Dr. Howard I. Davenport, '01, of Auburn, N Y., has recently been appointed head of the Bacteriological Department of the Cayuga County Health Board.
